

CRAIGMOOR WINES

ESTD | MUDGEE | 1858

2017 Chardonnay

Combining the vision of our viticulture and winemaking team with original local abstract photography, Ephemerals, of Australian artist Leonie Barton, The Artist Series celebrates the art of wine across Mudgee's best known grape varieties.

Artist's Series - The Gold Rush (2019)

The goldrush (2019) Brass weights from Craigmoor museum, Earth, concrete The 50 year old Craigmoor AC1 Block is a piece of Mudgee wine history, producing our best Chardonnay grapes. Hand-picked relatively early, and whole-bunch pressed into new French oak barriques for native yeast fermentation, this is a tightly structured, complex, flavoursome, age-worthy wine that is truly a work of art.

Variety: Chardonnay
Region: Mudgee, New South Wales

Tasting Note

At more over 50 years of age, the Craigmoor AC1 Block is a unique piece of Mudgee wine history, year in year out producing our best chardonnay grapes which we harvest by hand relatively early, and whole bunch press into new French oak barriques where it undergoes a native yeast fermentation. Complex and flavoursome, this is a tightly structured age-worthy wine that reflects the talented art of winemaking.

Technical Detail

Alc/vol: 12.5%
pH: 3.41
RS: 2.5 g/L
TA: 6.05 g/L
Closure: Screw Cap