2019 Chardonnay

Varietals: Chardonnay

Region: Mudgee

Mudgee's original Chardonnay vines are regarded to be the source for much of Australia's Chardonnay plantings from the 1960s. In fact, Craigmoor's then winemaker, Pieter Van Gent, released the first Aussie Chardonnay in 1972. The variety achieved rockstar status in the 1980s.

Winemaking Notes:

This Chardonnay is a modern expression of the Australian style: medium bodied, with citrus, peach and melon fruit flavours. Delicate oak marries nicely with fruit & finished crisp and lively.
